CI Scofield

Cyrus Ingerson Scofield [1843-1921] was a charlatan, a convicted criminal and a rogue. The fact that he is celebrated for producing a best-seller, dangerous Bible version with Dispensational notes is testimony of how deceived Christians can be. It is important to know the truth about this fraud.

He was born in Michigan, raised in Tennessee and served with Lee's army, being decorated for valour. He then became a lawyer in 1869. After a claimed conversion (1879) he was ordained in the Congregational Church in Dallas where he pastored from 1882 to 1895. Moody got him to take over the Moody Church in East Northfield, Mass. (1895-1902). He then returned to Dallas (1902-7) before engaging in conference work and founding the Central American Mission. In 1909 he published his Dispensational Bible with the help of businessmen. So, goes the normal biography found in many sources. This is the truth:

Scofield was a con-artist focusing in fraud and deception. He was exposed by a newspaper for several forgeries and con-tricks. The Topeka Daily Capital newspaper openly called him 'malicious' and a 'peer amongst scallywags'.<sup>1</sup> He was then involved in a railroad scam, along with a Jewish lawyer, which led to imprisonment for criminal forgery.

After reading Darby in prison and claiming conversion, he fraudulently claimed in 1892 to be a Doctor of Divinity; in fact he did not even have a degree. Upon his release from prison Scofield deserted his wife Leontine, and his two daughters, and took off with his mistress, a young girl from the St Louis Flower Mission. He even defrauded his mother-in-law of her life savings. Leontine filed for divorce in 1881 since Scofield had refused to support his family. Note this is after his supposed 'conversion'. The divorce was granted in 1883, with the court finding that he was not fit to look after children; yet at this time Scofield was pastor of Hyde Park Congregational Church in St Louis, which he lied to about his divorce.

He lied to 'Who's who in America' (1912) by saying that he was decorated for valour in the Civil War; in fact he was a Confederate deserter. He then abandoned his mistress and married Helen van Ward. This man is not only not fit to be a pastor but not fit to be in any evangelical church.

Scofield became involved with a subgroup of the Illuminati called 'the Secret Six' and became a protégé of Samuel Untermyer (1858-1940). Untermyer was a powerful Zionist who steered the policies of President Woodrow Wilson. With the help of his global elite friends in New York, Scofield settled at the Lotus Club, listed as his residence for the next 20 years. Here he advanced his ideas for a new study Bible and was supported by Untermyer, later chairman of the American Jewish Committee, president of the American League of Jewish Patriots and chairman of the Anti-Nazi league. Untermyer introduced Scofield to numerous Zionist and socialist leaders, including Samuel Gompers, Florelia LaGuardia, Abraham Straus, Bernard Baruch and Rothschild agent Jacob Schiff (who initiated the Council on Foreign Relations). These financed his trips to Oxford, England and arranged publication and distribution of his Bible. Untermyer was dominated by the desire to get Fundamentalist Christians to support the Zionist cause and declared that Jews were the aristocrats of the world. Scofield was his best strategy.

Other supporters include the 33rd degree Freemason George Bannerman, owner of the Dallas Morning News; the Rothschild owned Oxford Press, which published his Bible; Zionist William Eugene Blackstone, who published his teaching with the help of the Moody Bible Institute and oil baron Lyman Stewart. These all remained as hidden as possible.

There is no doubt that global elite figures supported and financed the Scofield Bible to promulgate Dispensationalism to favour Jews and an Israeli homeland. It was a political enterprise.

Scofield cannot be a genuine Christian and was a lifetime fraud and sinner. His politically motivated study-Bible, paid for by globalist, Zionist bankers, sold in the millions to gullible churchgoers and confirmed them in deception. This led to the current domination of Israel in US government foreign policy, resulting in unnecessary, illegal wars that has no benefit to Americans and cost trillions, but makes money for Jewish military corporations.
