

God's judgments in the earth

Introduction

The full revelation of God's judgment against sin is reserved for the Day of Judgment when every man will give an account of his life to God and be judged accordingly.

The day when God will judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ. Rm 2:16

In accordance with your hardness and your impenitent heart you are treasuring up for yourself wrath in the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God, who 'will render to each one according to his deeds': eternal life to those who by patient continuance in doing good seek for glory, honour, and immortality; but to those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness -- indignation and wrath, tribulation and anguish, on every soul of man who does evil, of the Jew first and also of the Greek; but glory, honour, and peace to everyone who works what is good, to the Jew first and also to the Greek. For there is no partiality with God. Rm 2:5-11

However, according to his sovereign will, God is so provoked by the sins of men that he also issues temporal judgment on the earth. The Bible is filled with examples of this, such as the judgment upon Sodom and Gomorrah.

Temporal judgment does not obviate the final judgment, it is a taster of what is to come. It usually removes from the earth the contamination of certain people or groups of people that stain and pervert the Earth itself.

The Earth is affected by sin

The natural order works in righteousness

The natural world, as the creation of God, is meant to function in the atmosphere of righteousness. This is not just the effect of righteousness, as man performs good works upon the earth, but the inner principles of righteousness within man himself.

There are two expressions from mankind:

- Objective: The first is when man does good works on the earth, affecting nature for the good.
- Subjective: The second is the very existence of righteousness within the soul, which also has an effect on the natural order.

Both of these can be reversed. Man can do bad things in the Earth, such as causing pollution and destruction. Man can also be evil in his soul, which the natural world can be forced to suffer.

Examples

And He said, 'What have you done? The voice of your brother's blood cries out to Me from the ground. So now you are cursed from the earth, which has opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand'. Gen 4:10-11

Hear this, you who swallow up the needy, and make the poor of the land fail ... falsifying the scales by deceit, that we may buy the poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of sandals -- Even sell the bad wheat?" ... Shall the land not tremble for this. Amos 8:4-8

Many rulers have destroyed My vineyard, they have trodden My portion underfoot; they have made My pleasant portion a desolate wilderness. They have made it desolate; desolate, it mourns to Me; the whole land is made desolate, because no one takes it to heart. Jer 12:9-11

For the creation was subjected to futility, not willingly, but because of Him who subjected it in hope; because the creation itself also will be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God. For we know that the whole creation groans and labours with birth pangs together until now. Rm 8:20-22

The natural order (creation) became subject to futility through the sin of man. This was caused by a 'bondage of corruption' which caused the natural order to groan. Deliverance from this state comes with the redemption of the elect and the end of this present world. This brings liberty and resurrection to creation. The awaiting of the emergence of the salvation of the elect at the coming of Jesus is likened to the pangs of labour in the Earth.

The natural order is brought into bondage and pain by sin but released by the new order of righteousness at the coming of Christ.

Examples of temporal judgment

The global flood

[God] did not spare the ancient world, but saved Noah, one of eight people, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood on the world of the ungodly. 2 Pt 2:5

A general judgment of the whole world (bar Noah's family of eight people) for continuing in wickedness, 'Then the LORD saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every intent of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually ... So the LORD said, "I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth"'. (Gen 6:5, 7).

Sodom and Gomorrah

Turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes, condemned them to destruction, making them an example to those who afterward would live ungodly. 2 Pt 2:6

A specific and localised judgment on two cities in the plain of Siddim for their sinfulness; especially homosexual rape.

Lot's wife

Then the LORD rained brimstone and fire on Sodom and Gomorrah, from the LORD out of the heavens. So He overthrew those cities, all the plain, all the inhabitants of the cities, and what grew on the ground. But his wife looked back behind him, and she became a pillar of salt. Gen 19:24-26

This was an immediate personal judgment for disobedience to a divine command.

Egypt

When He worked His signs in Egypt, and His wonders in the field of Zoan; turned their rivers into blood, and their streams, that they could not drink. He sent swarms of flies among them, which devoured them, and frogs, which destroyed them. He also gave their crops to the caterpillar, and their labour to the locust. He destroyed their vines with hail, and their sycamore trees with frost. He also gave up their cattle to the hail, and their flocks to fiery lightning. He cast on them the fierceness of His anger, wrath, indignation, and trouble, by sending angels of destruction among them. He made a path for His anger; He did not spare their soul from death, but gave their life over to the plague, and destroyed all the firstborn in Egypt, the first of their strength in the tents of Ham. But He made His own people go forth like sheep, and guided them in the wilderness like a flock; and He led them on safely, so that they did not fear; but the sea overwhelmed their enemies. Ps 78:43-53

Specific judgment against pharaoh and the Egyptians for the maltreatment of the Israelites who, in the person of Joseph, had secured their salvation from famine.

Miriam

Then Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses because of the Ethiopian woman whom he had married; for he had married an Ethiopian woman. So they said, 'Has the LORD indeed spoken only through Moses? Has He not spoken through us also?' And the LORD heard it. ...

'Moses; He is faithful in all My house. I speak with him face to face, Even plainly, and not in dark sayings; And he sees the form of the LORD. Why then were you not afraid to speak against My servant Moses?' So the anger of the LORD was aroused against them, and He departed. And when the cloud departed from above the tabernacle, suddenly Miriam became leprous, as white as snow. Then Aaron turned toward Miriam, and there she was, a leper. So Aaron said to Moses, 'Oh, my lord! Please do not lay this sin on us, in which we have done foolishly and in which we have sinned. Please do not let her be as one dead, whose flesh is half consumed when he comes out of his mother's womb!' So Moses cried out to the LORD, saying, 'Please heal her, O God, I pray!' Then the LORD said to Moses, 'If her father had but spit in her face, would she not be shamed seven days? Let her be shut out of the camp seven days, and afterward she may be received again.' So Miriam was shut out of the camp seven days, and the people did not journey till Miriam was brought in again. Num 12:1-2, 7-15

The Canaanites

For My Angel will go before you and bring you in to the Amorites and the Hittites and the Perizzites and the Canaanites and the Hivites and the Jebusites; and I will cut them off. Exod 23:23

And the LORD listened to the voice of Israel and delivered up the Canaanites, and they utterly destroyed them and their cities. So the name of that place was called Hormah. Num 21:3

You shall drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you, destroy all their engraved stones, destroy all their moulded images, and demolish all their high places; you shall dispossess the inhabitants of the land and dwell in it, for I have given you the land to possess. Num 33:52-53

But of the cities of these peoples which the LORD your God gives you as an inheritance, you shall let nothing that breathes remain alive, but you shall utterly destroy them: the Hittite and the Amorite and the Canaanite and the Perizzite and the Hivite and the Jebusite, just as the LORD your God has commanded you, lest they teach you to do according to all their abominations which they have done for their gods, and you sin against the LORD your God. Deut 20:16-18

And Joshua said, 'By this you shall know that the living God is among you, and that He will without fail drive out from before you the Canaanites and the Hittites and the Hivites and the Perizzites and the Girgashites and the Amorites and the Jebusites'. Josh 3:10

And I brought you into the land of the Amorites, who dwelt on the other side of the Jordan, and they fought with you. But I gave them into your hand, that you might possess their land, and I destroyed them from before you. Josh 24:8

The Canaanites and associated tribes were to be exterminated for their terrible abominations against God's law, which included child sacrifice, appalling brutality and violence, idolatry, and fertility cult prostitution. No trace of these people now exists, even though Israel failed to accomplish the fulness of God's judgment in the conquest.

Elisha's servant

Now he went in and stood before his master. Elisha said to him, 'Where did you go, Gehazi?' And he said, 'Your servant did not go anywhere.' Then he said to him, 'Did not my heart go with you when the man turned back from his chariot to meet you? Is it time to receive money and to receive clothing, olive groves and vineyards, sheep and oxen, male and female servants? Therefore the leprosy of Naaman shall cling to you and your descendants forever.' And he went out from his presence leprous, as white as snow. 2 Kg 5:25-27

Gehazi was judged for greed, lying and cheating.

Uzziah

But when he was strong his heart was lifted up, to his destruction, for he transgressed against the LORD his God by entering the temple of the LORD to burn incense on the altar of incense. So Azariah the priest went in after him, and with him were eighty priests of the LORD -- valiant men. And they withstood King Uzziah, and said to him, 'It is not for you, Uzziah, to burn incense to the LORD, but for the priests, the sons of Aaron, who are consecrated to burn incense. Get out of the sanctuary, for you have trespassed! You shall have no honour from the LORD God.' Then Uzziah became furious; and he had a censer in his hand to burn incense. And while he was angry with the priests, leprosy broke out on his forehead, before the priests in the house of the LORD, beside the incense altar. And Azariah the chief priest and all the priests looked at him, and there, on his forehead, he was leprous; so they thrust him out of that place. Indeed he also hurried to get out, because the LORD had struck him. King Uzziah was a leper until the day of his death. He dwelt in an isolated house, because he was a leper; for he was cut off from the house of the LORD. Then Jotham his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land. 2 Chron 26:16-21

Temporal personal judgment for disobedience, pride and blasphemy.

Assyria

And it came to pass on a certain night that the angel of the LORD went out, and killed in the camp of the Assyrians one hundred and eighty-five thousand; and when people arose early in the morning, there were the corpses -- all dead. So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed and went away, returned home, and remained at Nineveh. Now it came to pass, as he was worshipping in the temple of Nisroch his god, that his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer struck him down with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Ararat. Then Esarhaddon his son reigned in his place. 2 Kg 19:35-37

Judgment for attacking Jerusalem.

Ananias and Sapphira

But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession. And he kept back part of the proceeds, his wife also being aware of it, and brought a certain part and laid it at the apostles' feet. But Peter said, 'Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit and keep back part of the price of the land for yourself? While it remained, was it not your own? And after it was sold, was it not in your own control? Why have you conceived this thing in your heart? You have not lied to men but to God.' Then Ananias, hearing these words, fell down and breathed his last. So great fear came upon all those who heard these things. ... Then immediately she fell down at his feet and breathed her last. And the young men came in and found her dead, and carrying her out, buried her by her husband. Acts 5:1-10

An immediate temporal judgment for lying to God.

Agrippa I

So on a set day Herod, arrayed in royal apparel, sat on his throne and gave an oration to them. And the people kept shouting, 'The voice of a god and not of a man!' Then immediately an angel of the Lord struck him, because he did not give glory to God. And he was eaten by worms and died. Acts 12:21-23

The grandson of Herod the Great; persecutor of the church. He killed the apostle James and imprisoned Peter. Josephus (Ant. XIX. 8, 2) says that Herod Agrippa lingered for five days and that the rotting of his flesh produced worms.

Conclusion

We could itemise many more such examples. The conclusion is that God, in his sovereignty, sometimes inflicts temporal judgment on men to serve as retribution for sin or as a warning to others.

There is no doubt that God inflicts temporal judgment on individuals and nations when it pleases him.

The current state of unprecedented iniquity in the world

Where do I start with analysing this massive subject? I have identified many aspects of this in a number of papers over decades. Yet, without a doubt, the wickedness in the world is accelerating.

Child trafficking, abuse and murder

A million children disappear globally every year; 800,000 disappear in Britain. In recent years thousands of refugee Syrian children vanished after coming to the UK. There are allegations from many sources, including survivors and whistleblowers, that establishment power-players are not only sexually abusing children but murdering them – sometimes in satanic rituals. There are too many testimonies of this, from multiple sources on every continent, to ignore it. The proven Muslim grooming and rape gangs in the UK are just a small proportion of this. Never in history has there been such wickedness committed against kids in such large numbers on such a broad global scale.

This alone is a stench in God's nostrils. There are not enough millstones in the world to punish the perpetrators (cf. Matt 18:6; Mk 9:42; Lk 17:2).

Sex-trafficking

Statisticians tell us that there are more people in slavery today than at any time in world history. Sex-trafficking is being pursued on an industrial scale by gangs across Europe, Ukraine, America, Australia and many other countries. 'Peaceful' organisations like the UN have been caught engaged in this evil.

Organ-trafficking

This is another crime against humanity. Centres for this again include the Ukraine but also Israel and Western nations. Israel has kidnapped and jailed Palestinians in order to steal their organs. Usually the donor dies but sometimes they are released and find that an organ has been removed. Ukraine has been stealing the organs of their own wounded soldiers on the battlefield. Huge prices are paid for organs and so this is one of the most profitable crimes.

Blasphemy

Blasphemy against God and the Lord Jesus is rampant everywhere without let or hindrance. Jesus' name is used as a curse and he is blasphemed thousands of times a day in Britain alone.

Blasphemous skits, comedic events, poetry, movies and TV dramas are broadcast day by day. Some Jewish comedians¹ have performed the most outrageous blasphemous actions and statements against the Lord. Some Kabbalistic and Freemasonic performers have also staged shows that are utterly blasphemous and occult.

Now these people that blaspheme God are too afraid to treat the Islamic religion equally. They give Islam a free ride in fear of suffering jihadic consequences. Also much that goes on today would have been considered illegal in decades past within Britain.

Worst of all, through example, children are brought up to grow in being blasphemers because they know no better. Parents and teachers model how to blaspheme God as if it is a rite of passage.

The resurrection of occultism and witchcraft

I have explained this many times so I will be brief here.

Against all expectations,² occultism and paganism began to be resurrected in the mid-19th century. It developed, through various means, to become more and more fashionable and popular. Churches of Satan emerged, New Ageism grew rapidly based on occult Theosophy, mysticism and eastern religions; Kabbalism grew in favour, especially amongst celebrities like Madonna; while oriental pagan mystical traditions and healing techniques became widespread. Pop and rock musicians, like Jimmy Page, revered occultists like depraved Aleister Crowley; Page even purchased his house. Some recent music concerts exhibited massive occult themes and backdrops alongside hypnotic demonic music, sometimes celebrating suicide and Satan worship.

The establishment bent over backwards to accommodate occultism and treated it just like a traditional religion. American state buildings began to erect statues and monuments to demons and Satan. Schools began to teach occult subjects and children practised seances in common rooms. Divination became commonplace; even on mainstream television. The British Navy allowed Satanists to practice their rituals on HM Navy ships. Covens began to proliferate in British towns and cities. Satanic ritual murder began to be evidenced – though it was played down by the establishment. Witchcraft shops began to appear in towns purporting to sell aids for healing, such as gemstones. Tarot cards were as common as playing cards in some places.

In areas, such as the Channel island of Jersey, demonic and Satanic statues were erected in public parks, such as a statue in the form of Baphomet. Sometimes these were accompanied by pornographic statues, such as paedophilic sex acts. Even the BBC allowed the incestuous Eric Gill to erect a paedophilic statue in its headquarters and refused to remove it when questioned.

Occult symbolism is rampant everywhere in the West; on currency notes, advertising, packaging, business logos, news reporting, rock concert stage backdrops, music in general, corporate programmes and so on. It also features in the architecture and city planning layout of many key cities, such as Washington DC or Tel Aviv. Occult themes (vampires, demons, Satan, divination, magic, hexes, witches, werewolves etc.) are a chief feature of Hollywood movies.

We could go on and on. The point is that occultism, Satanism and demonology are now widespread in Western society and show no signs of letting up. This is obnoxious to God, especially when Britain was founded upon Christian principles and Biblical laws for 2,000 years. The Celts, the Romans, the Saxons and even the later Vikings (Norsemen) had a strong basis in Christianity. Kings like Alfred the Great, Aethelstan, Edward the Confessor, or Edward VI would turn in their graves. No longer can Britain say, as did Queen Victoria, that the British empire is founded upon the Bible.

The rise of violent crime

Britain used to be one of the safest countries in the world. The fact that policemen had no guns was an indication of relative social security. Many people carried knives of various sorts (e.g. penknives) but stabbings were very rare. It was commonplace for Boy Scouts to wear their uniforms at school for special occasions sporting a sheath-knife with a blade longer than four inches. No one was ever harmed.

Now, despite banning bladed weapons, London is one of the most violent cities in the world. There is an epidemic of knife attacks with several events a week being common. There were 14,577 London offences in 2023; a rise of 20% over the previous year; 112 resulted in death. More teenagers were killed in 2023 than in 2022. Three people were killed and eight people stabbed in the recent Notting Hill carnival alone. Other major urban areas are also seeing a huge rise in knife-crime. There were 49,489 knife crime offences in England and Wales in 2023; offences have been steadily rising for years. Otherwise peaceful teenage boys are carrying a knife for self-protection because the streets are so dangerous; just threatening with a knife may save your life from a gang determined to cut you.

What changed?

There is a multiple gang culture in urban areas today perpetrating all sorts of criminality: mostly drug and sex-trafficking and rape. Sadly these gangs are chiefly comprised of immigrants whose home culture involves the use of knives as a matter of everyday fact. For many, such as Afghans, their home did not have a modern police force or criminal justice system so disputes were often settled with knives or even tribal attacks with swords. There is a reason why British prisons are filled with convicted immigrants.³

Sadly the victims of violent crime are often the weak and vulnerable. The Southport victims were three young girls. One of the Notting Hill victims was a 32-year old mother. The following week a 13-year old teenage boy was killed.

Britain is becoming ever more dangerous and violent crime keeps increasing year on year.

We cannot articulate thousands of other rampant crimes prevailing in this modern world, a few would include:

- The destruction of free speech in the Western world, especially the UK.
- The constant killing of Christians by Muslims in Africa and elsewhere.
- The Israeli genocide in Gaza.
- The appalling, systemic war atrocities committed by Ukraine.
- The Transgender agenda.
- The sexual manipulation of children in schools by UN educational programmes.
- The sterilisation, deaths and maiming of women and children in Africa and India by Bill Gates' vaccine programmes.
- The removal of children by the state in Britain whereupon they are sexually abused and violated in care homes or even pimped out.
- The drug-trafficking organised by states like America (CIA) to provide money for 'Black Ops' (more money than the GDP)
- The oppressive tax regimes in the West.
- The banking scandals
- The oppression of the poor while the rich get richer.
- The scandal of allopathic medicine and the crimes of drug companies.
- The millions of dead and injured by the Covid vaccines.
- The evil of modern weapons, such as depleted uranium shells, chemical weapons, biological weapons (all being used by Ukraine).
- The fires caused by directed energy weapons to clear out poor populations, such as in Hawaii.
- The toxic content in food, water and medicine.
- The spraying of toxic chemicals in the atmosphere in solar radiation management.
- The murder of millions of babies in abortion clinics.
- The deliberate killing of the elderly by fatal medical interventions in the Spring of 2020 under Covid protocols.
- Non-consensual DNR notices on the old.
- The ruination of a generation of children through lockdown measures.

³ In 2024 English and Welsh prisons housed 1,272 Albanians, 906 Poles and 750 Romanians. In 2019 11% of the prison population were foreign nationals. The House of Commons data shows that minority ethnicities (BAME) constitute 13% of the population but make up 27% of the prison population. Black people constitute 12.1% of the prison population but 4% of the general population. 18% of the prison population are Muslims.

- The massive rate of child / teenager suicide due to social policies.

We could go on and on for days. The point is made. These times are the most evil in history because there are more people alive on Earth than in historic times and technology has provided very many means to perform evil.

Natural disasters: the current false sense of security

In terms of geo-physical catastrophes the world has experienced a quiet period in my lifetime. Deaths from natural disasters are way down on what they were in the 19th century and early 20th century. In 1920 there were 26 deaths per 100,000 people from natural disasters⁴ but in 2020 there were less than three. Disasters include: droughts, floods, earthquakes, storms, volcanic eruptions, wildfires and extreme temperatures. Modern technology helps mankind evade or mitigate these but (contrary to climate alarmists) the severity and number of disasters has fallen.

In terms of astrophysics it was also a period of relative stability. The magnetic poles were stable; the magnetosphere was strong; the sun was comparatively stable and the last major event disturbing civilisation (not then reliant on electricity) was the Carrington Event⁵ of 1859.

This has led to a false sense of security as mankind has increased its iniquity in this same period. In previous centuries a natural disaster would be linked to divine judgment and cause men to reflect. Now men run rampant in pursuing evil and ignore God and the consequences of wickedness.

Some current pointers to coming judgments in the earth

Introduction

I have explained that God issues temporal judgments in the world and on the Earth. I have also explained that the natural order reacts to sin by ‘groaning’; sin affects the Earth. The massive levels of iniquity in the world today will surely result in a divine reaction of temporal judgment; indeed, many natural events are already forms of this.

The signs are that a huge natural reaction to wickedness is brewing in the Earth. It is literally buckling under the weight of sin.

Caveat

Time-scales here have to follow the scientific papers. However, the Bible does not confirm this time-scale of historic events, teaching a more recent creation of Earth.

Potential massive volcanic eruptions in Europe

You will be punished by the LORD of hosts with thunder and earthquake and great noise, with storm and tempest and the flame of devouring fire.
Isa 29:6

There will be famines, pestilences, and earthquakes in various places.
Matt 24:7

There have recently been an unprecedented numbers of earthquakes in various countries; especially America. Hundreds have been reported in a few days. I have explained this before. For example; Malibu was recently shaken by a 4.7 earthquake. The Californian record was recently broken for the most Mag-4 and above earthquakes in a single year.⁶ The average is 8 but so far this year there have been 14 in Southern California, according to the US Geological Society.

⁴ Our world in data, ‘Decadal average: death rates from natural disasters, world’.

However, a more serious situation is developing in Italy. There seems to be a build-up of numerous volcanic eruptions and earthquakes similar to catastrophes that occurred in the past that wiped out entire civilisations and people groups (such as the Neanderthals). Scientists are warning that unless whole populations, such as in Naples, are evacuated millions will die. There are postulations that not only Italy but also most of southern Europe could be annihilated.⁷ Yet no one has called an emergency.

The Phlegraean Fields (Campi Flegrei) volcanic area incorporates part of the Gulf of Naples. It is a huge caldera where there are 24 separate volcanoes showing dangerous signs of explosion. News reports already show damage caused by recent tremors in multiple urban places. Swimmers have reported bubbles rising from the sea floor with a strong smell of sulphur. There have been scores of earthquakes in the region in recent months. There have also been ground deformations, fumarole changes, thousands of small eruptions, and even the rising of 2000-year-old ruins out of the ground. Airlines are already diverting routes to avoid the area.

A super-volcanic eruption would have dramatic knock-on effects globally, causing famine. This occurred after the Krakatoa volcanic eruption in 1883. Crop failures and famine also occurred in the 'year without a summer' in 1816 when climate anomalies caused a drop in global temperature of less than a degree. The anomalies were caused by the massive eruption of Mount Tambora in Indonesia.

If two volcanic eruptions in Indonesia could cause global crop failures and famine, what will a super eruption of many volcanoes in Europe do?

This potential calamity in Italy ties in with other observations regarding solar activity; such as that leading to a Carrington Event. I have also explained this before (also, see later).⁸ Multiple geothermal and solar events are coming to a head, which could spell global catastrophe on Earth (see next). All technology ceasing would be the least of the problems.

There are signs that the Earth is buckling under the stress caused by mankind's wickedness and that a super volcanic event may be witnessed soon.

Now these crises may not be part of the end-time events leading to the end of the world, in which case they will be a major divine judgment of a level unknown in human history. Such a divine judgment would correlate with the major level of wickedness filling the Earth at this time.

Future Earth disaster caused by galactic activity

Give glory to the LORD your God before He causes darkness, and before your feet stumble on the dark mountains, and while you are looking for light, He turns it into the shadow of death and makes it dense darkness.
Jer 13:16

I will show wonders in the heavens and in the earth: blood and fire and pillars of smoke. The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the coming of the great and awesome day of the LORD. Joel 2:30-31

Hear this, you who swallow up the needy, and make the poor of the land fail ... falsifying the scales by deceit, saying ... 'that we may buy the poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of sandals -- even sell the bad wheat?' ... shall the land not tremble for this ... 'and it shall come to pass in that day', says the Lord God, 'that i will make the sun go down at noon, and i will darken the earth in broad daylight'. Amos 8:4-9

I will shake heaven and earth. Hag 2:21

Every few thousand years the earth goes through a catastrophe followed by centuries of quiet. Our quiet period is coming to a close and a catastrophe looms.⁹

The magnetic poles are shifting. The strength of Earth's magnetic field is fading. There are magnetic changes throughout the solar system and in the sun.

There are major magnetic pole shifts every 12,000 years called 'magnetic excursions', with more minor events every 6,000 years. These are caused by regular galactic changes in radiation. These events take out several species and cause food stress globally. The events are accompanied by earthquakes, tsunamis, volcanic eruptions and extra space radiation followed by freezing.¹⁰ A new excursion has already started. The Earth began its magnetic shift in the 1850s, but it has accelerated since 2,000. There are also magnetic shifts taking place on all the planets and in the sun causing major storms and atmospheric changes.

Other signs include:

- There are more interstellar ions observed than expected.
- There is more energetic neutral hydrogen than expected.
- Cosmic dust is increasing in the inner solar system.

⁹ YouTube, Suspicious Observers, 'Earth disaster is coming, all the evidence'.

¹⁰ The 'little ice age' ending around 1805 was a result of such an event.

- Large changes in the Ixion ribbon,¹¹ the interstellar magnetic imprint on the outer heliosphere¹² surrounding the solar system.
- A solar system magnetic shift.
- We have observed nearby stars showing superflaring activity, such as AD Leo or Proxima Centauri.
- Solar micronova.

Pole shifts include tilting of the Earth, which causes major climatic events including tsunamis and storms and darkness caused by solar dust on the sun. The micronova unlock the earth's crust, causing this shift.

Science confirms that major species-ending, geo-physical and climatic, catastrophic changes will occur on Earth in the next 6-20 years.

This is likely to occur in the 2030s or 2040s. The question is whether this is part of the end of the world and the return of Christ, or a temporal judgment before the end. Whatever, according to multiple fields of science, it is certain to occur.

Ground movement in California

The mountains shall be thrown down, the steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground. Ezek 38:20

Rancho Palos Verdes, south of Los Angeles, is experiencing constant land movement. Gas lines are breaking, homes are sinking and roads are cracked. Last week 245 homes lost power. Parts of the shoreline have fallen into the ocean while ground is rising up out of the ocean creating new beaches. Evacuation warnings have been issued and the governor has issued a state of emergency.

California sits on the 'ring of fire' seismic activity range. In seven days recently there were over 900 earthquakes in California and Nevada alone. Within the next 30 years there is a 46% chance that Los Angeles will experience a magnitude 7 earthquake that will be catastrophic.

The current ground movement is a warning of more serious events to come.

In the US State where the most appalling wickedness is being perpetrated by those in control, the land is literally in upheaval.

¹¹ A narrow ribbon of energetic neutral atom emissions across the sky with properties correlated with the solar wind and the interstellar magnetic field draped round the heliosphere.

¹² The magnetosphere, atmosphere and outermost atmosphere layer of the sun. It is a vast tailed bubble-like region of space. It is continuously inflated by plasma originating from the sun known as the solar wind.

Earth's rotation speeding up¹³

Another symptom indicating that the Earth is on a catastrophic countdown is a change in rotation. Since the spin was documented, the rotation had been slowing down, and days were getting longer, causing the need for a periodic leap second to the atomic clock. This was measured in the milliseconds. [Climate alarmists blamed climate change but observations had been noticed since the early 1800s – the entire data record,]

In recent years, however, the rotation has been speeding up. No leap seconds have been added since 2016 because the rotation is speeding up and days are getting shorter. This causes potential problems for global time keeping but more importantly for digital infrastructure and the accuracy of GPS as well as space travel. These undergird much of modern life. 5 July 2024 was a new record for the fastest day (1.6 ms faster than 24 hours). This is due to the weakening of the Earth's magnetic field.

This is another indication, of many, of a coming massive global catastrophic change.

Atlantic Meridional Overturning Circulation (AMOC) collapse

The collapse of the oceanic heat transport is underway; the oceanic circulations are shutting down. This is what happened in the movie, 'The Day After Tomorrow' where a glacial ice-age covers the Earth.

This is a Heinrich Event: too much ice melt, oceans chill, heat transport failure followed by a cooling phase. This happens every 6,000 years.

The Beaufort Gyre¹⁴ is also involved. It is currently accumulating cold fresh water. When the Gyre releases cold fresh water it will accelerate the Heinrich Event and usher in an ice age, ocean chilling and AMOC collapse.

In summary:

- Ice melt is impacting AMOC.
- Beaufort Gyre release is coming.
- Heinrich Event is beginning.

There is a major cooling about to occur. There will be an AMOC collapse before 2050. The oceans will throw the climate into chaos. The magnetic excursion will wreck animal navigation and allow a flood of space radiation into the atmosphere and then the sun will deal the final blow.

This is such a serious scenario that it may well posit the end of the Earth meaning that Jesus will return just before the climax of this event. 2050 is also the termination of the plans of the global Elite to fulfil their Net-Zero cancellations (e.g. no private cars, no shipping, no air travel etc.) and also their plans for global domination and social control. Thus it is possible¹⁵ that the end of the world is within 25 years.

¹³ Whether one is geocentric (the ether is spinning around the Earth and the solar system orbits the Earth) or heliocentric (the Earth is spinning and orbiting the sun), the observations are the same.

Summary of cosmic catastrophes posing a severe threat to Earth

High energy solar flares

Solar magnetic fields generate sun spots and eject streams of particles and radiation (solar wind). Earth is protected by its magnetic field (creating the Northern Lights). A weakening of Earth's magnetic field or a stronger solar flare causes damage, such as power outages or communication disruption. The Carrington Event in 1859 was an example of this. The problem is that today mankind's infrastructure is founded upon electrical devices and a modern Carrington Event would cause societal collapse. Most basic functions would cease: electricity supply, GPS, heating, air conditioning, Internet, refrigeration (food and medicine would spoil), and so on.

Asteroid impact

This problem is now well understood. There is no protection against large asteroid collision, which would mean the end of the Earth.

Expanding sun

This is unlikely to happen in the near future. It is when the sun discards its outer atmosphere to form a planetary nebula ending up as a 'white dwarf'. Before this the sun will become cooler and larger becoming a stellar giant engulfing Mercury and Venus. It then creates very strong stellar winds that will slow down the Earth which will spiral into the sun.

Gamma ray burst

Such energy bursts create a narrow beam lasting seconds or minutes created by supernovas or binary stars. This could destroy the Earth's Ozone layer, leaving life vulnerable to UV radiation. Star system WR104 has the potential of creating such an event. Though around 6500 light years away this is not enough to be safe.

Supernovas

These explosions, occurring when a star ends its life, occur a couple of times every 100 years in the Milky Way. The Earth is not highly likely to be affected by these since they occur closer to the centre of the galaxy and the Earth is two thirds away from the middle.

Micronovas out of our own sun are a bigger danger.

Moving stars

A wandering star could come close to the sun, which could affect comets. This would increase the chances of a comet on a path towards Earth.

Catastrophic calendar

There is a 6,000-year cycle of climate, geo-magnetic and solar disasters.

- There is a solar-magnetic-climate disaster every 6,000 years. The last one was 6,000 years ago. Climate, magnetic, solar changes are already underway.
- There is a geo-magnetic excursion every 6,000 years.
- There is a solar super-flare event every 6,000 years.
- There is a climate catastrophe every 6,000 years.
- There is an amplified micronova level event (major excursion) every 12,000 years. The last one was 12,000 years ago.
- A major catastrophic event is imminent. The climate signals are occurring. The magnetic field of the Earth is shifting and weakening right on cue. The coronal chemistry changes are beginning in the sun; right on cue.

Unprecedented marine deaths

He turned their waters into blood, and killed their fish. Ps 105:29

The fish that were in the river died, the river stank. Exod 7:21

All over the world huge numbers of dead fish have been found in rivers, lakes and beaches. Not just fish but also cetaceans; dozens of whales have been found washed up dead on beaches around the world.

One recent example is the hundreds of thousands of dead fish flooding the port of Volos in Greece. Authorities have begun the clear-up by removing 57 tons of dead fish while experts warn of an impending ecological disaster.

Now we can surmise the cause of some of these events. Cetaceans are being killed by the damage to their sonar caused by offshore wind turbines confusing them to beach. Some fish fatalities are caused by localised pollution; others by the geo-engineering chemtrails pouring aluminium oxide, barium and other toxins into the sea from the sky. Several were caused by suffocation by an unknown cause. But many mass death events have unknown causes.

Some examples of fish die-offs

- Little Calumet River, Indiana; August 2019. [Caused by local pollution.]
- Atlantic Coast, February 2022; France.
- Menindee, New South Wales; March 2023.
- River Bollin, Cheshire, England; March 2023.
- Mandromondromotra River, Madagascar; March 2023. [Caused by local pollution.]
- Quintana Beach, Texas; June 2023.
- Salford Quays, Manchester; June 2023.
- River Mole, Gatwick, England; June 2023.
- Oder River, Poland; 2023.
- River Avon, England; June 2023.
- River Nene, Peterborough; December 2023.

- Hakodate, Northern Japan; December 2023.
- Darling-Baaka River, Australia; March 2024.
- River Alyn, Mold, Wales; May 2024.
- Walsall Canal, Birmingham; England; August 2024.

Note the repeated events in March-June 2023.

Cetacean (marine mammal) strandings

In New Jersey alone whale strandings involving multiple whale species, but mostly Humpback Whales, are increasing every year. In 2023 there were 14 alone. In 2013 there were nearly 200 strandings of dolphins and porpoises.

In the UK there has been a record number of cetacean deaths; 3,000 in three years.

Cetacean strandings are increasing worldwide;¹⁶ however, in many countries records are not kept of events so that the full global situation is hard to assess.

I suggest that the main cause of this is the damage effected to cetacean sonar by off-shore wind turbines. There is evidence that turbines cause beaching, cause whales to collide with boats and separate the young from their mothers.

Dead sea creatures, in horrific numbers, is a sign that something is terribly wrong in the natural order. Mankind is doing something very wrong to create conditions to kill animals at that level of genocide.

Millions of dead fish are a terrifying sign of something deeply wrong in the world. It is not necessarily a divine judgment in itself but an indication of man's sin preceding that judgment.

Conclusion

Trying to scope out the level of wickedness provoking God in these days is difficult because the proliferation of iniquity is way beyond all historic bounds. Sodom and Gomorrah fade into obscurity in comparison with the level of evil being experienced today.

In correlation, there is a level of climatic, geo-physical and solar activity threatening mankind not experienced in human history. Chaos of all sorts is impending.

All this points to the likelihood of divine judgments being meted out to individuals, Elite groups, cities, various regions, chaos in the natural order and even judgment of whole nations. God wiped out multiple Canaanite tribes for their wickedness in temporal judgment; the world is currently experiencing far worse wickedness, on a greater global scope and of a more intense iniquity than then.

Expect to see examples of God's anger being expressed against sin

Summary of 'Worlds in Collision'

Immanuel Velikovsky wrote several books on catastrophism, which became best-sellers and also created a heated debate. Velikovsky was repeatedly castigated by mainstream scientists that preferred uniformitarianism and evolutionary theory to be prominent. However, he also contradicted certain laws of physics. Yet there are anomalies in the solar system that contradict the laws of physics (such as reverse orbits).

World in Collision was published in 1950, being his most controversial work.

A summary of his main propositions in this book.

- Two series of catastrophic events occurred in human history, 34 and 25 centuries ago.
- Venus was formerly a comet originating from Jupiter.
- Comets are not nearly immaterial bodies.
- Earth's orbit changed more than once, as well as the length of the year.
- The position of the terrestrial axis and its astronomical direction changed repeatedly.
- The Polar Regions shifted, the polar ice became displaced into moderate latitudes and other regions moved into the polar circles.
- Electrical discharges took place between Venus, Mars and Earth when in close contact; their atmospheres touched.
- The magnetic poles reversed a few thousand years ago, accompanying a change in the moon's orbit and the length of the month. This happened repeatedly.
- The magnetosphere of the Earth reaches at least to the Moon.
- The rotation of the Earth can be affected by electromagnetic fields.
- In history the year once consisted of 360 days and the month almost exactly 30 days.
- He explained the origins of the Mars canals and the craters of seas of lava on the Moon brought about in stress and near collisions.
- Cosmic catastrophism conforms with the celestial mechanics of Newton.

Disturbances on Earth were caused by

- In the 15th century BC a comet was ejected from Jupiter (which became Venus) and passed near Earth. This changed Earth's orbit and axis causing many catastrophes mentioned in mythologies and religions.
- 52 years later Venus passed close by again stopping the Earth's rotation for a while causing catastrophes.
- In the 8th and 7th centuries BC Mars (displaced by Venus) closely approached Earth causing a new round of catastrophes.
- After this the current celestial order became established.

As a result of events on Venus it is unusually hot and has an abnormal orbit. Carl Sagan showed that this is mistaken; Venus is hot due to its proximity to the sun. A number of Velikovsky's claims about Venus have been discounted.

Comments

The Bible clearly teaches cosmic catastrophism, such as the sun going back or stopping. Some of Velikovsky's claims could be caused by the global flood.

Despite some of his theories being unsound, some of his propositions are correct and some ally with Biblical data. Changes in the magnetic poles are now understood to be caused by solar activity. The ice-core samples clearly show that Polar Regions were once verdant and Greenland was once green and not tundra / ice.
