

What is going on?

Events in late 2016 - early 2017

Introduction

I am trying hard to avoid writing political articles as I have much to do. However, my job is to inform and educate those willing to listen in order to help them live better as servants of God. Something that will help is to explain about the truth and deception war that is raging in western society as part of a bigger satanic plan.

I have written many papers in recent years explaining that the battle for the minds of modern people is based on satanic warfare to destroy Christianity. It seeks to wipe out Christians, Christian morality and ethics, and the Christian infrastructure of western democracies. This war is now hotting up and Christians need to understand what is going on.

One example of this increased aggression to Christian principles is the arrest and conviction of two street preachers in London for quoting the Bible in response to questions about Islam and homosexuality. Reading Bible verses was considered by the magistrates court as, 'abusive and a criminal matter'.¹ Apart from an attack on Christianity, this is a direct attack on free speech in a supposedly liberal society. What is worse is that the preachers were subjected to considerable verbal and crude abuse by hecklers, yet the police chose to arrest them, even though their responses were polite and recorded on camera.

So, quoting the Bible is criminal if it offends Muslims and Gays. Yet the Prime Minister is a supposed Christian. The law of the land is based upon Christian legal principles, laid out in the Bible. The very courts that condemned the men arose from Christian foundational principles in society, developed by Christians such as Oliver Cromwell.

Furthermore Parliament enacted the separation of church and state in 1559, ensuring that the state was forbidden to interfere in the sacraments or the interpretation of Scripture, thus ensuring the freedom of religion. This act was re-affirmed by the Queen in her coronation oath. Freedom of speech under Common Law is also affirmed by the oaths of MPs coming into office.

None of this matters to the deep state which controls our government. Step by step it is ramping up the pressure on anything Christian. All levels of authority in our society are under pressure to apply global elite rules (such as political correctness, multi-culturalism, support of LGBTs etc.), whether teachers, policemen, judges, the CPS, MPs etc.

Rise of hostility to the deep state

The rise of populism and nationalism in recent months has horrified the deep state (global elite). The success of Brexit (despite political manoeuvring) and the election of Donald Trump (despite vote rigging) have taken them by surprise. There is now an all-out war on the population to overturn both these events.

¹ Barnabas Fund, 'In 2017 the UK capitulated to a new blasphemy law: Christian street preachers convicted for quoting the KJV Bible', 3 March 2017.

In France false criminal charges are being laid against Marine Le Pen to try to oust her from the election because there are signs that she could win. In the Netherlands the right-wing candidate is facing assassination attempts and requires security. Further opposition to the elite is likely to emerge in Germany, Greece, Hungary and Italy. In any event, the Euro is finished and will collapse in time, which alone will facilitate the end of the EU. The deep state is panicking.

In the light of this wave of international awareness of, and hostility to, the deep state, the global elite leaders are doing everything in their power to deceive, manipulate, coerce, fool, befuddle and suppress the masses. Sadly, left-leaning liberals that have a prominent voice in every area of society are falling for this.

A worse result is the absolutely facile hysteria being manifested by utterly deluded individuals indoctrinated by media brainwashing. Events like Brexit, the election of Trump or the demonisation of Putin trigger this hysteria. Thus you can see videos of protestors humped over, wailing like a seal; writhing on the floor screaming as if in agony, shaking and fitting in hysterics, or even threatening to commit suicide for trivial reasons. Others are threatening murder. These are all young liberals, often Feminists or SJWs,² that have literally lost the plot and need medical help. All because they have been deluded by a constant barrage of lies from the media and cannot cope with what is happening in the real world. These deluded people are victims of the severe propaganda and indoctrination war that is being waged against the population.

Make no mistake; this is a war against you. Trump is the target today; you are the target tomorrow.

Generalities: Fake news

Background

If you want to know what is really going on, the root issue for Christians in this area is the truth. What is true and what is false? Christians must not support and trust blatant lies in any area of their life.

One of the backdrops for the current hysteria has been the massive generation of fake news by the mainstream media (MSM) during the US presidential campaign. Never in history has there been such a barrage of lies, slander, obfuscation, deception and false reports. The MSM is now dying on its feet because people are seeking the truth from alternative sources and many independent truth-tellers accused the MSM as promulgating fake news. In retaliation, the deep state started a widespread campaign to accuse the alternative media as being fake news and affirmed their credentials for veracity. They then attacked alternative media outlets directly.

Some ploys were made to initiate censorship on social media platforms. Spy-bots and viruses flooded alternative media websites and video platforms such as InfoWars. Milo Yiannopoulos was banned from Twitter and then set-up, resulting in his resignation from Breitbart. Others have faced ridicule and smearing. Breitbart, Zero Hedge and Drudge Report news channels were blacklisted. Russia has been blamed for everything from the election of Trump to the Brexit result to the rise of Le Pen. Some organisations, such as Facebook, started censorship operations. The folly of this is that such platforms will just lose business as people leave for a more democratic one.

The reality

Christians need to understand about the sources of their information. You should abandon traditional loyalties (to the right or the left) and dump the newspaper that you have read for decades. All these have been hijacked by the global elite and are now just pawns of the Deep State. You should also understand that the education system is completely corrupt and little less than a propaganda machine for satanic policies and dumbing-down intelligence. It is not to make kids smart and wise; it is to make them dull, unable to argue, non-questioning and therefore no potential threat to the establishment.

Sources that perhaps were more or less trustworthy generations ago (although with a certain bias) are now highly suspect or are just downright propaganda mouthpieces for the establishment. News media that used to have integrity and ensured strict editorial policies, checking facts and eliminating bias, are now just hacks propagating lies and deception.

This was proved in the US election campaign when leaked emails and whistleblowers showed that the media was fully controlled by the deep state in favour of Hillary Clinton. Not that this should have been surprising, but documentary evidence was given showing that Clinton's team had prior editorial approval of front-page stories; of corruption; of lies and slander. To this was added leaked information proving that the DNC primaries were rigged to oust Bernie Sanders; that the candidate debates were fixed and questions provided in advance to Clinton; that government officials were corrupt and working for Clinton. It goes on and on.

What was shocking was that with the full weaponry of the deep state supporting Clinton, including vote rigging courtesy of George Soros, Clinton was such a terrible candidate that she lost and even Democrats, Blacks and Hispanics voted for Trump in considerable numbers. This was a shock to the elite, and a surprise to Trump. People want change.

In the light of the election of Donald Trump, following the surprising victory of Brexit, the rise of Le Pen (creating the possibility of a Frexit) and a Nexit³ possibility, the elite are worried that they are losing control of the media to amateurs that tell the truth. Thus they have promoted the foolish strategy of raising up the straw man of 'fake news' and blaming alternative media or Russia for their losses.

Ways in which the media lie to you

They blatantly lie – intentionally false statements.

That is, they paint a completely false picture of a certain event.

- Example: American bombers destroy a Syrian hospital but the media blames it on Russian warplanes.
- Example: Claiming that Saddam Hussein had weapons of mass destruction that could hit British interests when the UN inspectors had already affirmed that he had none.⁴

They lie by omission.

This is very common. They can claim that they did not fabricate a story but they deliberately led you down a wrong path by omitting vital facts.

- Example: the Muslim immigration crisis in Europe. Hundreds of stories that reveal how evil this is are censored – the rapes, the attacks on children and women, the murders, the riots, the burglaries, the drug smuggling, the sex trafficking, the no-go zones etc.

³ More than half of the Netherlands' population seeks to leave the EU and the far right candidate looks set to win.

- Example: Muslim terrorists (e.g. al-Zinki) that behead children and yet receive American funding and resources are said to be Syrian Free Army rebels and their crimes ignored.⁵

Obfuscation (rendering obscure, unclear or unintelligible).

That is, they cloud the matter in certain ways to hide the truth.

- Example: the Syrian conflict was clouded with all sorts of false data mentioned often but with no evidence; such as that Assad was hated by his people (false); that Assad murdered his own people (false); that there was a Free Syrian Army (it soon fell apart into terrorist factions). In fact the Syrian conflict was a proxy war led by American elite interests to implement a part of the Zionist Yinon Plan by funding imported Muslim extremists into Syria to effect regime change against all international laws.

Dissembling

That is they conceal their true motives and the prior elite strategy behind their stories.

- Example: all sorts of lies and falsities were used to enable the Iraq War but the real reason was the elite strategy to implement the Zionist Yinon Plan.⁶

Diversion

They put the blame for something on to some other party to further a political strategy.

- Example: blaming Russia for hacked leaks from the US presidential election process when it was the CIA that did this (see later).

Pushing an agenda

That is colouring everything they report in order to further an elite propaganda issue.

- Example: the Muslim immigration crisis in Europe; multiple stories are coloured to put a good spin on Muslim migration – push the humanitarian issue, push the child refugee issue, emphasise the responsibility of the west etc.

The MSM is collapsing fast

In America and Canada the great sources of false information, the MSM, are collapsing fast. They are losing advertising revenue, shares are falling, income is diminishing, staff are being made redundant in their thousands – all because people no longer trust them due to their repeated lies, brought to a head in the presidential election campaign.

For example, CBC's⁷ revenue is down 62% and is being propped up by Liberal Prime Minister Justin Trudeau; any normal business would have gone into bankruptcy. Every month a newspaper is being shut down in Canada. Some commentators have predicted that 2017 will see the complete collapse of the MSM – no one trusts it and folk prefer independent sources on their 'phone, tablet or computer.

In Britain the BBC has utterly lost its credibility and is becoming a dinosaur; it is unlikely to survive in the long-term. This is justice since it has been virulently anti-Christian for many years. The press is suffering loss of revenue and circulation figures are tanking. I have showed before that the secret services, particularly the CIA and MI5, totally control the political content of the mainstream press and threaten journalistic non-compliance with being fired. Story after story has been proved to be utter lies, sometimes done in the most facile way.⁸

⁷ Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, similar to the BBC.

Alternative media

In opposition to the slaves of the deep state (the MSM) small, low-funded, independent news sources on the Internet are booming. One young, British, right-wing journalist, Paul Joseph Watson, whose speciality is short videos demolishing lies with articulate speech (plus some occasional swearing), careful analysis and defined sources, is getting 25 million views a week on YouTube, Twitter and on-line news broadcasts. This is more than all the British mainstream media combined. Watson repeatedly rips the lies of the MSM apart with visceral precision.

Multiple alternative news sources now garner more followers than CNN, FOX, CBC, ABC, BBC added together. Intelligent individuals can give you more accurate, better formulated unbiased information on many matters, such as Stephan Molyneux,⁹ Greg Hunter,¹⁰ Gerald Celente,¹¹ Tyler Durden,¹² Luke Rudkowski,¹³ and many others. In fact, you can very often get far more accurate information from Russia Today or Russia Insider, which are supported by a political bias, than anything in the western MSM.

The real fake news

Is there fake news? Most certainly; but the chances are that you have been watching such stuff every day. You must understand that the mainstream news media that has always been a stable part of social life is now utterly corrupt and bent on manipulating your thinking.

Are there wacky alternative media websites? Of course, but these are usually easy to spot and avoid.¹⁴ They will be extremist and offer little proof of sources. But what is really evil is the constant flow of lie upon lie, propaganda upon disinformation, that spews from mainstream newspapers, the BBC, Channel 4 News and ITV news. What is seen day after day makes me sick to my stomach.

For example we see the constant vilifying of Vladimir Putin and Bashar al-Assad as being inhuman, brutal, massacring civilians and antichristian. In fact the very reverse is true. Putin and Assad are devoted to protecting Christians. In Russia a new Christian church is being built every day. In Syria, Syrian nationals are rejoicing in the streets and thanking God for Assad and Putin for defeating the NATO-funded thugs that invaded their country. Both leaders have high approval ratings that western leaders could only dream of. Critics of Assad like David Cameron gained power with a 24% share of the electorate. Assad was voted in with over 80% in a free and fair contested election.

Another example is the demonising of Iran. It was Iran that aided Assad and Putin in defeating al-Qaeda terrorists in Syria that were killing Christians and Muslims. It is Iran that is currently waging war against al-Qaeda terrorists in Iraq. Iran has always been against the Taliban, Wahhabists, al-Qaeda and ISIS.

¹⁴ Check the URL. Some fake news platforms claim to be something that they are not.

On the other side, American Neocon policy has been to destroy the church in Iraq, Libya and Syria, murder Christians, massacre civilians in the hundreds of thousands and inflict ruin on sovereign nations. America, Britain and NATO have continually financed and resourced the very terrorists that behead children and kill civilians. While berating Assad falsely for war crimes, and condemning Iran for supporting terrorists, the US, Britain, France, the EU, Israel, Saudi Arabia, the Gulf States and Turkey were financing, supporting and even training terrorists that kill civilians.

This is also occurring in Ukraine. This week Lugansk authorities captured two Ukrainian soldiers with weapons and bomb-making equipment in Donbass. They confessed to assassinating the rebel commander Oleg Anashchenko and others. They also confessed that it was the CIA that trained them in bomb-making and terrorism in the Khmetnitskaya base of the 8th regiment.¹⁵ ISIS soldiers were trained by American, French and SAS elite forces in Lebanon to attack Syrians. I have covered this elsewhere. Over and over again we find that the root of terrorism is the CIA.

No western news channel had any reporters on the ground in the Syrian conflict and got information from incredible sources that are often pure fiction. One chief source of misinformation is a questionable man living in a flat in Coventry. The multiple fake news stories included videos claiming to be in Syria when they were from a music promotional video. Videos claimed to be in Syria when they were filmed by a production crew in Egypt. Videos of bombed rubble from historic stock footage claimed to be recent events in Syria. Hospitals bombed by American A-10 Tankbuster aircraft were falsely attributed to Russia. Yet all these fake stories have appeared in British newspapers and on BBC and other news channels. No wonder hardly anyone trusts the mainstream news media anymore.

Now you can access detailed information on the Syria situation in my paper, 'Syria: What is really going on?'. Here I intend to give current examples of fake news in the mainstream media to show how corrupt it is and why you shouldn't trust it.

The demonisation of Vladimir Putin

Listen to what he actually says

Now I am not a supporter of any politician from any stable, and deeply distrust those with near-despotic power; neither do I personally favour Putin over anyone else; but facts must speak for themselves.

I ask readers, who have been deluged with smear campaigns in the media about Putin for years, have they ever listened to any of his speeches? I have, and I find that I can endorse a great deal of what he says. He speaks wisely, concisely and explodes myths with restraint.

On one occasion he, without passion or vituperation, completely refuted statements by the BBC reporter John Simpson to his face, asking him, at the end, if he had any common sense. He showed that if one checked the facts a reporter could never make such statements or accusations. The whole smear campaign of the BBC was trounced in this one presentation with facts you never hear about (such as that Russian defence spending is 10% of America's or details of missile capabilities, and thus provoking a war would be stupid).

¹⁵ Russia Insider, Rudy Panko; 'Ukrainian soldiers caught planting car bombs in Donbass. Guess who trained them?', 13 March 2017.

Why is the media focused upon smearing Putin?

The media constantly uses adjectives like ‘villainous’ when describing Putin. He is everywhere demonised and vilified. Heinous acts, such as war crimes abroad or human rights violations domestically, are associated with him – with no evidence supplied. In fact many commentators accuse him as being the major threat to world peace (when the real culprit is America).

It must be understood that the mainstream media is dominated by the global elite and owned by Zionists in the main. It is used as a pawn to further elite plans in the world, which are merely satanic strategies for the end.¹⁶

For many years the Soviet Union was a pawn of the elite and was one of the worst persecutors of the Christian church in history. Millions of people were murdered and tortured while tens of thousands of churches were burned down. Some of this was undone in the actions of Khrushchev,¹⁷ who reversed Stalinism but even more after the collapse of the Soviet federation and Communism. Gorbachev initiated some reforms and social changes while Yeltsin mismanaged the country and enabled the growth of mega-rich oligarchs while people starved. Putin has been a far more effective leader; which is why the people love him.

Putin turned against the global elite

At some point Putin became a devout Orthodox Christian and set about restoring the fortunes of the Russian churches; now, a church is being built every day in Russia. Note these quotes.

Orthodox Christianity has always played a special role in shaping our statehood, our culture, our morals. The church may be separate from the state; but in the soul and history of our people, it is altogether.¹⁸

Many Euro-Atlantic countries have moved away from their roots, including Christian values. Policies are being pursued that place on the same level a multi-child family and a same-sex partnership, a faith in God and a belief in Satan. This is the path to degradation.¹⁹

Putin may not be evangelical, I cannot say, but he is an ardent defender of traditional Christian values and that is very rare in modern political leaders (most of whom are virulently anti-Christian; the elite are mostly Luciferians).

Putin is also a great nationalist and seeks to protect his country from western expansionism and interference. In this he has been a very astute politician; in fact, he is probably one of the shrewdest statesmen in history. The current tensions on Russia’s borders are entirely caused by EU and NATO expansion, contrary to historic agreements (I have previously explained this).²⁰

Putin's policies for economic and national stability

The global elite are terrified of having a man they cannot control in charge of one of the greatest national resources in the world. Stalin's stupid collectivism, and ruthless (mainly Jewish) leadership, ruined the country and made him an easy elite pawn (thus he killed millions of Christians and destroyed thousands of churches). Things are very different under Putin and all efforts to hinder Russia (sanctions, threats, economic) have failed.

Putin has carefully controlled his country to be founded upon sound fiscal and monetary policies with a currency backed up by gold. Like China and India he has spent many years building up huge gold reserves when Europe and America have depleted stocks. Russia also has real resource wealth (oil, gas, agriculture, water, and minerals) to back up its monetary policy. He has avoided the debt scandal that America and Europe are mired in (which will collapse their currencies very soon) and, as a result, investment is now flooding into his country, which is seen as a safe haven (due to low debt and secure currency). In 2016 Russia saw a boom in bond and equity investment. There are no negative or zero interest rates in Russia while the Russian central bank pursues a common sense conservative policy. His alignment of Russia with the BRICS banking cartel also avoids connection to the corrupt Petro-Dollar system and connects Russia with the economic giant of China.

Putin's defences

Unlike America, which spends many billions wasting money on the military to line the pockets of the elite, Russia spends only 10% of the US military budget and yet gets more for it.

Russia has the best modern tank, the Armata, which is years in advance of anything in Britain or the US and even doubles as a missile launch system. Russia has the best fighter aircraft, which cost a fraction of the expensive dog that is the US F-35. [Even India is buying Russian Sukhoi warplanes which can outmanoeuvre the US's F-22 and F-35 or the British 'design by committee' Typhoon.] Russia has the most powerful Satan II ballistic missile that can't be shot down and one of which can destroy all of Texas. Russia has advanced nuclear submarines that are 'invisible' with self-propelled torpedoes with reduced drag, far better than the ailing British fleet which are out of date and pointless.²¹ Russia has also probably got the best-trained combat troops using the most cost-effective weaponry.²² The reliability of the AK-47 carbine is legendary while the British service rifle has a terrible reputation. In the Gulf War even the SAS had to steal equipment and arms from US stores in order to be able to conduct raids.²³ More recently, British troops in Afghanistan purchased their own equipment, such as boots and satellite 'phones.

²¹ Trident's supposed deterrent is only about 1% of the world's nuclear bombs and entirely pointless in any nuclear war.

²³ See the stories in the book, 'Who Dares Wins' by Andy McNab.

In short, Putin has ensured that the money he spends on the military is put to the best possible use, unlike the wasted billions of US funding.²⁴

Putin's effectiveness

Putin has been doing everything right to make his country strong and secure and doing the opposite of America, which is corrupt and weak in many areas. The US national debt of many trillions of dollars alone is enough to ruin the nation and its debt ceiling runs out on 15 March 2017, frozen at $200 billion in cash on hand while spending remains at a rate of $75 billion a month. In other words, America will run out of cash on 15 March. Printing more dollars will no longer work.

Putin has consistently side-stepped the elite's traps and turned their plans upside down, whether in the Crimea, in the BRICS bank, or in reversing the elite's plans in Syria. Consequently, he is the great enemy of the elite and they do all they can to smear his name, tarnish his plans and threaten his country. If elite pawn Hillary Clinton had gained the presidency, a war with Russia would have been all but certain.

In fact, due to Putin, the elite's plan for Syrian regime change is in tatters since both Russia and Iran now have air bases there. Instead of seizing Syrian territory (the ultimate plan) Israel's security is under greater threat. Thus the elite are having setback after setback. Putin right now even has troops in Egypt ready to take on Muslim terrorists in Libya.

The smears against Putin

We went through false news story after false news story in the Syrian conflict where almost all the lies about Russian atrocities were the very reverse of the truth. The atrocities were caused by American aircraft, or proxy American-funded terrorists. I have explained this previously.²⁵

Now we have claims that Putin interfered in the US presidential election to give Trump an advantage. The fact is that it was Clinton and the DNC that were rigging elections, assisted by George Soros' voting computers. The fix was already set in the primaries when Bernie Sanders was overcome by fraud; Democrats that knew this were furious and switched votes to Trump or abstained. In the main election it is claimed that 3-5 million votes were rigged, but even that couldn't help toxic Clinton.²⁶

Then we had claims that Putin was the source for hacks of emails when the sources are known to have come from whistleblowers in the government (NSA, Homeland Security, the DNC and the military) who opposed Clinton.²⁷ The FBI originally stated that Russia was not to blame. WikiLeaks formally affirmed that Russia was not the source. The claimants showed no evidence proving their claims. None of this mattered, the media continued to run with the story. We now know that it was the CIA that wiretapped election candidates and blamed it on Russia (see later).

²⁴ The US F-35 Lightning II alone cost many billions in development costs and each jet costs around $132 million after cost-cutting exercises. The F-22 Raptor had a total programme cost of $62 billion with each jet costing about $339 million. The unit cost of a Russian Sukhoi Su-35 (the best fighter plane) is $40-65 million. Britain has ordered F-35s for its future Aircraft carrier.

²⁵ See, for example, my paper, 'Syria: What is really going on?'

²⁶ Trump and many others claim this. Voters videoed their votes being cancelled or switched by polling computers. Others voted multiple times. Others voted in multiple states. Others were ineligible but cast a vote anyway (helped by Obama promising them that there would be no felony if they did). Investigations have already proved that more votes were cast (usually for Democrats) in certain states than there were eligible voters.

²⁷ Even a former British ambassador claimed he knew where some of the leaks came from affirming it was an NSA source.

Then we had foolish politicians like Ben Bradbury affirming that Russia may have caused the Brexit vote. Such palpable nonsense ought to trigger a de-selection since the man is either deluded or following an elite agenda. More recently, Russia has even been accused of enabling the political rise of Marine Le Pen in France.

Then there were claims that it was Russia that was trying to initiate a world war when the fact is that it has been America doing this in the Ukraine, the South China Sea and mobilising a series of military bases from Finland to Australia to encircle Russia causing a direct threat to her security. Frankly, Putin's patience is impressive.

Just the economics should give people pause. Russia simply cannot afford to engage in a war with NATO or America. It would ruin Russia in weeks. Neither does Russia have the troop numbers and resources of America. It has better trained troops, some better missiles and better strike aircraft, but its resources are limited. It could maintain a defensive war for a time but a pre-emptive military strike is simply out of the question.

And so it goes on. Hardly a day goes by without another news story demonising Russia and Putin in particular. The mainstream media, the BBC in particular, is guilty of fake news stories over and over again.

Growing Russian churches and growing Russian prosperity

Underneath the politics the satanic plot within all this is, as always, enmity to the Christian church. The church is growing in strength in Russia with full government support.²⁸ Thus the elite seek to destroy this by any means possible.

Most people do not realise how Russia has changed since Perestroika²⁹ and what the situation is like there. Let me give you some contrasts with the USA.

Russia	USA
Health care
Free health care for all. Some procedures and tests require a small contribution. For example a blood test costs $5 (in Britain a private blood test costs about £600).	No free health care for most people. Costs for working middle class Americans are extortionate. So much so that many cannot afford health care for their families. Insurance costs under Obamacare have doubled or even tripled in many cases causing many to abandon insurance and hope for the best. Insurance companies are facing bankruptcy and closing. Even minor treatment, such as dealing with fractures, costs thousands of dollars. Despite being the most expensive health care system in the world, it ranks as 37 th globally in terms of efficiency.
Education
Russia has more college graduates. 54% have college degrees. Education is free.	University education is very expensive, leaving graduates with massive loans to repay.
Russia has the highest literacy performance in the world.	America's illiteracy is shocking. 32 million adults in the US cannot read (14% of pop.). 21% of US adults read below a 5 th grade level. 19% of high school graduates can't read. ³⁰

²⁸ Caveat: Putin supports the Russian Orthodox Church expression of Christianity. When Russia was opened up to foreigners many Charismatic missions and heretical sects invaded the Russian churches, bringing bad teachings, bad practices and bad morals. The government has now reacted to this and since mid-2016 there has been a clamp down on foreign missions. This has sadly impacted evangelical missions with one pastor being deported very recently.

²⁹ Russian policy reforms during the 1980s under Gorbachev.

³⁰ Study by US Dept. of Education and the National Institute of Literacy, 6 September 2013.

Working conditions
Russians are entitled to 28 calendar days of paid vacation (there are ten days of holiday at Christmas). As a result many Russians travel abroad.	Americans have no legal paid vacations at all. Possibly for this reason 70% of Americans do not travel abroad. Cf. 75% of Brits and Aussies have passports and travel.
Mores
Christian morals prevail.	Secularism prevails. Perversions are legalised and blatant in society.
There is freedom of speech and freedom of choice. E.g. Christian bakers can refuse to bake cakes celebrating homosexuality with impunity. Homosexuals are allowed this lifestyle choice in private but cannot exhibit it in society.	Bakers have been prosecuted for refusing Gay customers. Homosexuals are allowed to express sex acts in public. [Note that in Britain this has included oral sex in high streets in Brighton and full sex in parks.]
Abortions after 12 weeks are not allowed.	Abortion is allowed up to the 9 th month.
Smoking Cannabis is illegal.	Smoking Cannabis is legalised in some states and widely prevails in many others.
Christianity
The Christian church is highly honoured and fully supported by President Putin.	Christianity is actively worked against by the deep state. Christian values are hated and sometimes prohibited by law. People speaking Biblical principles are deemed as bigoted hate criminals and are prosecuted. Government agencies have labelled Bible believing Christians as potential enemies of the state. Law enforcement officers are trained to view Christians as subversives.
Geography
There are 22.5 Russians per square mile of land.	There are 90.6 Americans per square mile.
Economics
Russia has one of the largest export surpluses in the world at $199 billion.	America has a deficit of over $780 billion (2011).
Russian currency is backed by real gold and has large gold reserves.	The US currency is tied to the oil business and not backed by gold. ³¹ In fact, America has very little gold at all, having leased it out.
Russian national debt is $600 billion.	US national debt is over 18.96 trillion (104% of GDP). ³²
Russia has more energy resources than the US. It is the number one in natural gas reserves and the largest oil exporter and producer.	The US relies upon imports from Saudi Arabia and other nations.

Conclusion

The relentless political and media war against Putin and Russia is driven by the deep state elite, centred in the US and Europe. The root of this is a hatred of Christianity which the elite cannot control and subvert (as it can in America and Europe). The fact that Putin is turning Russia into a major success story makes the elite wild with rage, but the only weapon it has at the moment is propaganda. If Clinton had won the election the west would already be at war with Russia via an attack on Iran. Hopefully Trump can continue to stave this act of gross stupidity off.

support what he is trying to do and see him as the only hope for America getting out of the mess the Deep State has plunged it into.

Elite control of America

The Deep State has been running America for decades, at least since Woodrow Wilson, following the plans of various elite groups and individuals in different areas. For example, foreign policy has been determined by the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR) for many years. America has been the centre of the elite control of globalisation and corporatocracy. Many parts of America have been raped by globalists who care nothing about the US and who are more concerned about establishing a worldwide empire.³³

Politicians of all sides have been complicit in this, lining their own corrupt pockets at the expense of the people. Whole sections of the community have been robbed, such as the middle class whose wages have plunged to mid-80s levels while the elite 1% have become fabulously rich. We could go on.³⁴

Trump's opposition to the deep state

Trump is the candidate that opposes all this. He seeks to reverse all these trends and work for Americans. His catchphrase was, 'Let's make America great again'; that is, to restore it to its success as a Christian nation before it was hijacked by the elite Luciferians. To do this he promised to, 'drain the swamp'; i.e. get rid of the endemic corruption in the Washington cesspit.³⁵

He has nothing to gain and much to lose. He maintained his election campaign from his own funds so he was beholden to no man. In office he has refused to take a salary. This is unprecedented. Even before his inauguration he managed to stop hundreds of thousands of jobs going overseas and did more in a few weeks than Obama had done in eight years.

Once in office he, unusually, started to role out his plans to do exactly what he said he would do, instead of renegeing like everybody else.

Denunciation of Trump and sedition

Despite all of this, there has been a global smear campaign the likes of which has never been seen in history.

- Libel, lies and slander abound. The MSM has continually, day after day, tried to smear Trump with negative stories.
- Obama has set up office four miles from the White House to oversee an insurrection against Trump, with branches across the country. Propaganda from this source has urged protestors to go out and die on the streets.
- Trump's own secret service has been leaking secrets to the media (which is treason).³⁶ One of these leaks forced the resignation of General Flynn over a technicality. The leak was the greater crime, which no one protested.
- The CIA bugged Trump Tower and covered its hacking code by using protocols that mimicked Russian tools.³⁷ Obama had to know about this. This in itself is bigger than Watergate – under Obama everybody and everything in the US is being surveilled and

³⁴ See my book, 'The Depths of Deception'.

³⁶ Proved by the testimony of whistleblowers, including a former colonel in the intelligence services.

³⁷ Proved by WikiLeaks Vault 7 download. In ten years WikiLeaks has never been proved to publish anything false.

the data stored, let alone foreign governments.³⁸ There is no evidence that Russia had anything whatsoever to do with enabling the Trump victory, but there is hard documented evidence that the CIA tried to destabilise Trump and pretended it was a Russian hack.³⁹ It is possible that Obama, high officials and CIA leaders could go to prison for this.

- Elite chief George Soros has been investing millions in protest activism and demonstrations, bussing hordes in. In the election campaign, rabble were paid to riot at rallies pretending to be Trump supporters. Huge violent protests are planned globally for the 2017 Mayday celebrations.

Yet the more the media lie about him, the more politicians try to trap him, the more the people like him – his personal ratings have risen since in office. Even celebrities that condemned him in the campaign have switched sides and now support him.

Good points never published

It is interesting that while lies have abounded about Trump, he has not personally publicised stories that show his good features – and there have been many. Whether he is evangelical or not I have no idea, but he goes to church, supports traditional Christianity and has gained the support of many church leaders. He is opposed to abortion but has given individual states the right to choose for themselves what their policy is. He is opposed to war and wants to pull America out of the Middle East. He wants to ramp down the escalation of bitterness caused by Obama and Clinton with Russia.

Trump and his family have done many good works that they do not boast about. On one occasion a US marine platoon were stranded in some foreign country and left behind. When Trump heard about it he had his personal airliner fitted out and sent to fetch them back in style. No wonder soldiers and veterans voted for him. He has given millions to philanthropic causes.

Within a month of taking office Trump has been able to create an extra 300,000 jobs for Americans. This is exceptional fulfilment of election campaign promises. Yet no one shouts about this.⁴⁰

Yet every day there is another smear story denouncing him as some kind of demon or buffoon. America has had plenty of buffoons in the presidency who never had this kind of castigation. It has also had some very evil men that did despicable things with their country who were never denounced in this way. It also had presidents that actually committed severe crimes, such as rape and worse, but never had the nastiness given to Trump.

Trump may turn out to be a good or bad president, I cannot tell; but what I can say is that the news should not take sides and should stick to facts and not trivialise and demonise someone falsely.

Daily trickle of smears, lies and criticism

It seems that everyone in Britain is expected to hate Trump unless they are mad. Politicians, commentators, comedians, actors, activists, businessmen – the whole gamut of society - is lined up to attack Trump and spreading lie upon lie in the process. Those few who openly support him, such as Nigel Farage or Katie Hopkins, are also targeted for demonisation whatever they say.

³⁸ Even the New York Times ran a front-page story showing this months ago. It is not news. Whistleblower Edward Snowden proved this years ago.

³⁹ WikiLeaks published the source code proving this.

⁴⁰ This is probably not down directly to Trump but to market confidence in what it sees as Trump's conservative plan.

Even trivia is twisted in this crusade. Trump had the biggest ever public following in history to witness his inauguration (aided by on-line facilities). The crowds at the actual event were at least the same as Obama's, despite terrible downpours. What did the media do? It said that there were very few people, while CNN published images of the crowds forming before everybody arrived, claiming that this was the final crowd. All over the world the lie spread that the crowds were small when they were not. No one bothered to repent for their lies when the alternative media exposed the truth.

Obama – the worst president in history, but the media loved him

In the demonisation of Trump, liberals hold up Obama as some kind of hero. The fact is that this president was merely an eloquent poster-boy for the global elite, a mere tool of the worst policies. In fact, he was perhaps the worst president in history and should get the Tony Blair award for the worst political liar in the world. For example:

Summary of the terrible legacy of Barack Obama
Government
Cabinet control: Obama's chief officials were chosen by the elite (in fact by Citibank's parent company). ⁴¹ The big banks dominated America's policies.
Appointees: Obama's personally appointed staff included some of the worst people possible. These included: Rahm Emmanuel (Chief of Staff and top Israeli point man); John Kerry (Sec. of State). Joe Biden (who wrote the Patriot Act in 1995, seven years before 9/11). Hillary Clinton (criminal).
Policies: all Obama's policies were initiated by the deep state, mostly Jewish Neocons and bankers.
Wall Street: was protected by Obama. In March 2009 he said, ' I stand between you and the pitchforks. I am on your side and I will protect you '. ⁴² He did this instead of sending the criminal bankers that caused the 2008 crash to jail. Not one was convicted of the largest swindle in this history of man. The reason for this was that Wall Street was his financial backer in his election campaign. While the Left thought Obama would fight the bankers, Obama was actually their appointee and they chose his cabinet.
Democrat failure: Obama crippled the Democrat Party over his two terms. Democrats lost over 1,000 seats in state legislatures, governorships and Congress.
Scandals: Obama had more scandals than any other modern presidency. These included: Solyndra, Fast and Furious, the Benghazi attack and cover-up, the IRS scandal, the AP phone records scandal, the Sestak job offer scandal, the GSA scandal, the NSA scandal, the Iran nuclear deal and ransom, the VA scandal, the Pigford scandal, the Bergdahl swap and various EPA scandals. And many more. The mainstream media paid little attention to these. Obama makes Richard Nixon look like Tinkerbell.
Guantanamo: despite his election campaign promises, Obama never closed down the Guantanamo prison.
Weapons sales
Under Obama more weapons sales were approved than any other president since WWII.
Massive military spending was granted to Israel.
Massive weapons sales were granted to Saudi Arabia, including smart bombs.
Military atrocities
War: Obama was engaged in more wars than any other president. He is the only president to have been at war every day of his presidency.
Bombs: During his second term, Obama dropped a bomb every 20 minutes. In 2016 Obama dropped 26,171 bombs; mostly in civilian areas.
Drones: Obama sanctioned drone strikes with relentless cruelty. Hundreds of innocent civilians have been killed in Pakistan, Afghanistan, Iraq, Yemen, Somalia and other places. On several occasions, generations of one family have been assassinated when a missile destroyed a wedding party. ⁴³ Yemeni victims have seen multiple poor shepherding relations killed. Almost 90% of people killed in recent drone strikes were not the target; 90%! ⁴⁴ For example, one US cluster bomb killed 35 women and children in Yemen

⁴¹ Confirmed by WikiLeaks.

⁴² The Guardian, Cornel West; 'Pity the sad legacy of Barack Obama', 9 January 2017.

⁴³ A typical example is a drone strike in Yemen in December 2013, which killed 14 people returning from a wedding. The operator mistook their vehicles for those of terrorists.

⁴⁴ Huffpost Politics, Marina Fang, 'Nearly 90% of people killed in recent drone strikes were not the target', 20 October 2015.

when a cruise missile hit the wrong target. ⁴⁵ Obama made certain that the Yemeni reporter who proved this story to be true, Abdulelah Haider Shaye, was imprisoned for five years. [See my paper 'Occasional Thoughts 5'.] Even Americans have been killed by a drone strike (e.g. Warren Washington).
Torture: Obama presided over a reign of torture; only some of which has come to public scrutiny.
Foreign policy
Libya: Libya was not a threat to the west and had been in alliance with it for some time. It had the highest standard of living in Africa and a higher standard than America. Obama started an illegal war with no Congressional approval. It is now a failed, unstable state with Islamic militants fighting it out for control; all caused by American and NATO interference to follow an elite strategy to remove Gaddafi. This destabilisation partly caused the migrant crisis that is now destabilising Europe.
Pakistan: drone strikes have killed over 400 innocent civilians.
Syria: Obama funded, resourced and trained al-Qaeda and ISIS to create a proxy war in Syria whose objective was the removal of Assad. Assad was opposed to al-Qaeda and the remit of the US should have been supported Assad against terrorists.
Somalia: the military action here against al-Shabab was claimed to be in 'self-defence'.
Yemen: another proxy war pursued by Saudi Arabia with US support and finance in order to gain oil. Entire wedding parties and funeral gatherings (in one case killing 140 and wounding 500) were destroyed by US drones and US supplied Saudi warplanes. Yemenis have called for a UN investigation into atrocities.
Israel: Obama did nothing when Israeli Defence Forces killed more than 2,000 Palestinians (including 550 children) in 50 days. Yet Obama gave Israel an additional $225 million in financial support.
Fencing Russia: against the law, Obama set up American bombers in Poland. This was part of a massive military build up from the Baltic Sea to Australia to encircle Russia.
Economics
Debt: Obama saw the national debt double on his watch. ⁴⁶
Unemployment: Obama oversaw millions of worker's jobs relocated overseas.
Capital flight: Entire cities, such as Detroit, were ruined and left desolate due to job losses (the 'rust belt').
Labour insurgencies: especially those in Wisconsin, Seattle and Chicago were ignored.
Education
Market forces: Obama unleashed market forces in education that closed hundreds of public schools for charter ones. The top 1% got nearly two-thirds of the income growth in eight years even as child poverty (especially of blacks) soared.
Standards: under Obama the standards of education continued to worsen with American literacy being shocking (see earlier figures).
Civil liberty
Stop and search: in 2009 Obama called New York City mayor Michael Bloomberg an, 'outstanding mayor'; despite the fact that under Bloomberg 4 million people were stopped and frisked.
Whistleblowers: such as Edward Snowden, Chelsea Manning and Jeffrey Sterling were demonised and convicted. These showed how the US government was committing internal and foreign crimes, such as bugging the 'phones of every foreign head of state, including allies or spying on all American citizens.
Vote rigging: Obama and Clinton rigged the system to crush Bernie Sanders in the Democratic primaries. Obama publicly encouraged illegal aliens to vote confirming there would be no repercussions. Under Obama's watch, the polling computers paid for by George Soros changed voter's choice from Trump to Clinton before their very eyes.
Wiretapping: Obama expanded the illegal wiretapping of every American citizen, despite promising not to allow this when on campaign. Even top government officials were included in the surveillance, including federal judges, all the Supreme Court, Congressmen, senior military leaders and even Obama himself.
Indefinite detention: Obama has expanded the draconian measures brought in by Bush in 2001 allowing for (NDAA in 2012) the indefinite arrest of someone even suspected as being involved in supporting terrorists. It enables the military to arrest any American anywhere in the world (including on US soil) with no habeas corpus (charges or trial). This enables the deep state to arrest and imprison anyone at all with no process. This is the worst type of totalitarianism.
Kill list: Obama maintained a secret kill list of people to be assassinated anywhere in the world without trial or process. US citizens and teenage girls were on this list. Obama personally signed off each action.
Obamacare
Control: the policy was drawn up by elite bankers / insurers; chiefly Liz Fowler. She was an executive for WellPoint, the largest publicly funded commercial health benefits company.
Coverage: Obamacare did not cover 20 million people (about 14 million people gained coverage).
Premiums: Insurance premiums for middle class people skyrocketed, forcing some of them to abandon health insurance altogether.

⁴⁵ The Telegraph, Richard Spencer, 'US cluster bombs killed 35 women and children', 7 June 2010.

⁴⁶ In 2008 the national debt was 40% of GDP. It is now nearly 80% of GDP.

These people were promised by Obama to have lower premiums.
Doctors: Obama promised that people would keep their chosen doctor. When the scheme was implemented he confirmed that they may lose their doctor.
Health costs: Health care costs increased by the highest rate in 32 years. Insurance costs went up dramatically.
Civil rights and peace
Blacks suffering: Obama did nothing at all for Black Americans, many of whom were made redundant.
Black violence: Black on white violence was at its worst levels since the 60s race riots.
Black support for Trump: For good reason, more Blacks and Latinos voted for Trump than any other conservative in 30 years.
Castigation: Obama called Baltimore black youths, 'criminals and thugs'.
Race relations: are much worse. This is the opinion of the majority of Black Americans, which is why they voted for Trump in large numbers.
BLM: Obama's support for Black Lives Matter movements resulted in increased violence, riots and deaths of police officers (including black policemen). 93% of police officers now have become more concerned about their safety.
Anti-truth: Obama enacted a law to work against free speech by targeting independent media.
Christianity
Syria: Obama was responsible for the deaths and torture of thousands of Christians in Syria through arming, funding and supporting the Muslim terrorists that killed them.
Freedom: Obama oversaw a continual deterioration in the ability of Christians to speak freely and practice their religion openly. Law enforcement officers were trained to view Christians as potential threats to security. Many Christians were arrested for preaching, evangelising or protesting, including 80-year old women.
Quotes
From every conceivable angle, from failed policies to absent leadership to outright corruption, Obama's presidency has set a new low bar. [Matt Margolis; Conservative Review, 20 January 2017.]
The worst president in history. [Title of a book by Matt Margolis; conservative.]
Obama is the founder of ISIS. ... Obama is, without question, the worst ever president. [Donald Trump; right wing Republican.]
When you talk about drones, the American Empire, the NSA, civil liberties, attacks on journalism and whistleblowers, he's as bad or worse than Bush. [John Cusack (actor) 4.6.15.; left libertarian.]
Obama is worse [than Bush and Blair] ... In the case of Afghanistan he sharply escalated the war ... he's directly involved in aggressive and criminal actions, carried out by Israel. [Noam Chomsky; left wing academic and intellectual.]
I am appalled right now. This White House, this president, this vice president, this secretary of state, all of them, are willing, apparently, to dishonour themselves and this country Willing to cover up and lie ... the shame that these people have no honour. [Pat Caddell; left Democrat strategist.]
Obama has little, if any, principles except to aggrandise and make himself more and more important. ... This is a man who is causing us and will cause us a great deal of harm ... This is the first administration that has scared me. [Nat Hentoff; left Village Voice writer.]
The problem with what the president is doing is that he's not simply posing a danger to the constitutional system. He's becoming the very danger the Constitution was designed to avoid. [Jonathan Turley; liberal constitutional professor.]
I didn't believe it was possible, but the Obama administration has just reached an all-new low in its abysmal civil rights record ... Obama's now asserting a power so radical – the right to kill American citizens and to do so in total secrecy, beyond even the reach of the courts – that it's too harsh even for one of the most far-right War on Terror cheerleading lawyers in the nation. [Glenn Greenwald; left Guardian reporter.]
When I see President Obama moving his lips, I assume he's lying. [Jeff Cohen; left MSNBC producer and critic.]
Barack Obama is the worst president in history. In my generation, we'll inherit a weakened country, drug cartels in Mexico, tax cartels in DC ... Somebody has to go to Washington and knock the hell out of the place. [Ben Quayle; right wing Republican.]
The good news is that, according to the Obama administration, the rich will pay for everything. The bad news is that, according to the Obama administration, you're rich. [PJ O'Rourke; right wing.]
We have never had a president who over and over again openly, aggressively, defies the law. [Sen. Ted Cruz; right wing Republican.]
Obama instituted the most anti-growth, anti-investment, anti-jobs measures that we have seen in our lifetime. Now he called his agenda ambitious; I call it reckless. [Mitt Romney; right wing Republican.]
While criticisms from the right are obviously partisan, it is interesting that there are many from the left that scandalise Obama. Furthermore, if he were a good president, there would not be so many issues that the right could attack him on. All agree on his disastrous unemployment figures, his crippling of the economy, his dangerous military exploits overseas, his failure in Libya, his failure to help Black Americans, his strengthening of the deep state and so many more items. There is no doubt that Obama has been a disaster for America.

Obama's main strength was that he was a very willing face for the global elite deep state; a mere puppet teleprompt reader.

What is interesting about this is that the elite dominated mainstream media has painted over all of Obama's failings and continues to portray him to the public as successful and righteous. This is propaganda at its worst.

Whatever Trump's potential failings, he is hardly likely to be as bad a president as Obama was. Yet the elite still pump out MSM lies that Obama was a good man and an effective president with no scandals to his name.

How many Christians have been fooled by his articulate, well-presented charm in public speaking (just like Tony Blair)? How many failed to, 'test all things' (1 Thess 5:21). Supporting Obama was to support a satanic policy that, ultimately, sought to destroy the Christian infrastructure of society.

The left are determined to get rid of Trump at all costs

Trump is being attacked on all sides: by constant protestors, riots and demonstrations; by the MSM; by left entertainment personalities (such as actors and comedians); by left educational academics (most US colleges); by almost all political commentators; by forces in his own government (such as left-leaning NSA officials or left-appointed judges), by the Democrats; by Obama's subversive strategies and by Hillary Clinton (who has stated that once Trump is eradicated VP Mike Pence can be controlled due to his predictability).⁴⁷

This is an undercurrent war; it is absolutely unprecedented.

The deep state are in such shock that Trump won they are using all energies in order to get him impeached, put him in jail or wear him out so that he resigns. Assassination attempts have failed. You now see false stories about him on the BBC / ITV / Channel 4 every day. Comedy TV shows constantly berate him. Star Trek / X-Men actor Sir Patrick Stewart OBE has stated that he wants to get American citizenship solely in order to fight Trump. It goes on and on.

The root of this is the war between God and Satan. The devil sees the US today as a hiccup in his global plans and seeks to eradicate Trump, just as he seeks to get rid of Putin. The main current tactic is psychological warfare using the media.

The point

The point of all this is that the deep state hates Christianity. The efforts of the elite are always fixed on damaging Christianity in every possible way. Those that stand up for traditional Christian values, whether they are true believers or not, are targeted for destruction and demonised (such as Putin and Trump). Those who actually kill Christians and destroy Christian principles in their country (as Obama did)⁴⁸ are supported and flourish.

Christians must wake up to what is really going on. Far too many people support satanic policies out of ignorance and trust in authorities. Such folk must start to be wise as serpents or they will fall into deceit and sin.

The real fake news is on your TV every night and in your newspapers. Trust no one in the world; check everything. Do not be friends with this world, which is God's enemy.

⁴⁷ WikiLeaks Vault 7 second tranche.

⁴⁸ Obama's policies in Syria and Iraq killed thousands of Christians. Obama worked tirelessly to devalue Christian principles within America, such as supporting and enhancing the rights of homosexuals and illegal Muslim immigrants.
